ACCREDITED BREEDER SCHEME
(PROMOTING RESPONSIBLE BREEDING)

A MENTOR WILL:

1. Be available to answer questions pertaining to breeding.
2. Give assistance to new breeders using past knowledge gained from personal experience or from others, learned behaviours and recommended readings.
3. Share useful and relevant methods and systems that will enable the new breeder to perform competently without assistance.
4. Possibly assist in the delivery of the litter when and where appropriate.
5. Use the Self-Evaluation Checklist to monitor and guide the new breeder and keep all relevant documentation.
6. Under no circumstances accept or take responsibility for the behaviour and actions of the new breeder.
7. Report to Dogs Queensland any member who does not uphold the conditions of membership.

SITE VISITORS:

1. A Site Visitor will be the designated person who has been instructed and given strict criteria to address when visiting the site of a fellow Accredited Breeder.
2. A Site Visitor will visit a site as part of a team to investigate an enquiry / complaint about a breeder and / or the conditions of the site or for the specific purpose decided upon beforehand by Dogs Queensland.
3. Dogs Queensland will decide the criteria to be addressed before the visit is conducted and written notice will be given to the breeder prior to any site visit.
4. The site visit may be conducted as a regular practice or as a result of an enquiry or complaint.
5. The site review will comprise of not less than two (2) site visitors, one (1) being acceptable to the breeder.
6. A report will be required from all site visitors and will be submitted to the General Manager of Dogs Queensland addressing the purpose of the visit and the on-site conditions found at the time of the visit. It will also contain recommendations to address such issues if any.

COMPULSORY REQUIREMENTS:

The applicant will:

1. Provide documentary evidence of a demonstrated commitment to the development and promotion of any ANKC activities. NOTE: Activities do not include simply participating in weekly competition events.
2. Provide evidence of active long-term membership of an affiliated club.
3. Provide evidence of having held office bearer / management committee status within that club.
4. Have been a member of Dogs Queensland or ANKC equivalent for a minimum of 10 years.
5. Have been granted Breeder Accreditation.

Please complete the application form and provide and attach the necessary requirements to the form.

SCHEME DISCLAIMER:

The Dogs Queensland Accredited Breeder Scheme recognises and encourages compliance with good practices in dog breeding. It does not guarantee the health or disposition of a dog. Compliance is the responsibility of the breeder and Dogs Queensland maintains a grievance procedure for referral of complaints. The purchaser retains his / her statutory and contractual rights. Dogs Queensland disclaims any liability relating to the health or disposition of the dog or the conduct of Accredited Breeders.
