Notes to Exhibitors

Double handling and the ring – All double handling (i.e. walking around the ring must be done inside the double handling ring.

RUNNING OUTSIDE THE RING IS NOT PERMITTED.

Double handling is only permitted in the double handling ring and any person who enters the double handling ring enters at their own risk. Children must be over the age of 10 years and supervised by a parent/adult

Access to rings: No person other than officials listed will be admitted to the judging ring with the exception of the Committee members on official show business only. Under no circumstances shall any person be in the ring, as an official or observer, whilst there is an animal owned or part owned by that person being exhibited in that ring, until judging of the class is announced as being officially completed and numbers have been taken by the Ring Steward.

Exhibitor's Vests: These must be handed to the ring officials before leaving the judging ring. Failure to do so will incur a $35 charge for replacement vest.

Ground Security: The organizers of the Show will not be held responsible for any loss or damage to exhibitors property.

Hot Weather precautions: Please check regularly on dogs which are left in trailers and cars. Exhibitors are advised to increase their level of fluid intake (no alcohol) in order to avoid heat stress and/or heat stroke when showing dogs in hot weather.

Breed Survey Scheme: The small (*) in front of an exhibit's name in the catalogue denotes that the dog has been breed surveyed and classified
